SUNDERLANDWICK,

DRIFFIELD,

28TH MARCH, 1900.

MY LORD,

David Dalby, the Holderness first Whip, asked me on Monday to make out for him the extended pedigree of Cowslip 55, and yesterday he gave me your letter of the 15th inst., enquiring about Rapid 64. I enclose the information you desire, which I think you may rely on. You will observe that Cowslip 55 is out of Conquest 50 and not from "Rosy" as you thought, there was not a Rosy in the Holderness Kennel prior to 1859, nor between that date and 1883. Through Holderness Cowslip you get some of Lord Henry Bentinck's best blood, for of Comus 44 the great grand-sire of Charon 51, he wrote in his "List of the most remarkable dogs in the Reepham Pack"—Comus 44, a model dog—Tomboy 45 called the schoolmaster of the pack and was probably THE BEST DOG that ever ran in the Midland Counties. There was little to choose between these two dogs in point of nose, brilliancy and stoutness, each dog was equally remarkable for dropping down and working a fox, when dying, out of dry ditches, but Comus could be led wrong, while neither man, hound, or fox could make a fool of Tomboy. Comus was a model dog and a capital getter, while Tomboy was nearly drafted as a puppy, was an uncertain getter, and no dog got by him ever got a puppy. He alludes to Charon 51 as "a good dog and a good stallion, less brilliant than Crafty," also to Contest 48 as "a model animal in all respects for work and shape." If there is anything further you would like to know with regard to these pedigrees or any others of the Holderness Hounds I shall be very happy to look it up for you, as I have copious notes on the subject. I may possibly see you on Friday afternoon at the meeting of the Nimrod Club.

Believe me,

Yours faithfully,

FREDERICK REYNARD.

The LORD NORTH,

Wroxton Abbey, Banbury.

* Through this hound the Warwickshire get the Beaufort Justice blood.

CROOME COURT,

SEVERN STOKE, WORCESTERSHIRE,

24TH OCTOBER, 1908.

MY DEAR NORTH,

RAMBLER was rather a thickset hound, about 23 inches, but nevertheless showing a great deal of quality. He was a very hard runner and nothing could stop him when he was on the line of a fox, and he would charge a bullfinch like a teapole-chaise horse, throwing himself into the fence half way up and fighting his way through. Richardson, to whom I lent him when he was acting master of the Brocklesby, told me that on one occasion, during a good run, the fox, which was sinking, climbed up the side of a deep chalk pit. RAMBLER was the only hound who managed to get up, and they had to bring the rest of the pack back and take them round to follow him. Yet with all his courage, he was a most sensible hound, and so intelligent. You could stop him directly if he took heel. He ran in the pack for 12 seasons. On one occasion he was left out. I was hunting the hounds, and we found a fox in Tiddesley Wood, a large cover, which went away at once. I was fortunate enough to be with them, and counted the hounds as they left the wood. We wanted a hound. There was a good holding scent, and we had a real good run, a 9 mile point, and killed our fox in the Worcestershire county. When we broke him up we still were short of a hound, and the 2nd whip remembered me singing out to him at Tiddesley, so he took a horn and rode back to the cover. He went along the rides, blowing his horn, and at last, hearing a whimper, tied his horse to a tree, and, making his way to the place, found poor old RAMBLER hung up in a wire, strong enough to hold a man, and which must have been set for foxes by some poaching fellow. I used to quote this as an illustration of the necessity of counting hounds, a thing which has gone very much out of fashion. Hoping you are well,

Ever yours,

COVENTRY.

Belvoir Amorous	by their Twinkle

Mr. Drake's Brilliant. Her full pedigree will be found in Vol. 1 (Mr. Tongue) of Kennel Studbook, page 483.

Belvoir Stormer. There is another Stormer 65 by Sir W. W. Wynn's Royal see ped. 5 but I fancy Stormer 58 is the dog.

Mr. Foljambe's Herald. This dog was bought by Lord Henry Bentinck. He is found in both his and Mr. Foljambe's lists for 1835.

1. Newsmen. A long low dog, full of quality, lots of bone. Very evenly made. A capital dog all round. Belvoir tan.

NOTES PED. 1 Continued.

2. Rallywood 43. Splendid neck and shoulders, good straight legs. Rare feet and loins, fine back. Stood rather under 23in. Wonderfully fast and determined and good at an afternoon fox. Rich black, white and tan. Dale says that no matter how remote, he can always trace his good qualities in his descendants.
3. Basilisk. A very good dog in his work. A good tan with a good deal of white.
4. Rosebud. She worked and ran up at head till she was 10 and was never known to do wrong. A hard runner. Magnificent black and tan.
5. Alfred. A very well made dog with great ribs and no lumber. Had a particular note. Good in his work. Black and tan.
6. Ambrose. Had great length and depth of the rib. Immense bone and very powerful. Neck and shoulders not so good, quite straight. Very good in his work and a hard runner considering his bulk. Black, tan and white.
7. Adamant. Very good in her work. Had great thighs. Black and white.
8. Nathan. A clever hound in every respect with splendid thighs and very sensible head.
9. Abigail. A big bitch with great thighs. A good drawer. Had a peculiar note. Was remarkable at finding a fox.
10. Noble. A wonderfully good dog in his work. Black and white.
11. Gaiety. A fine bitch, a good hunter, but not a hard runner.
12. Royalty. A very useful stamp of hound. Muscular and good length.
- †12. Ruler 44. A grand hound. Always found his fox first. Yellow pie.
13. Charity. A slashing bitch with plenty of character. Black, white and tan.

14. Singer. A beautifully proportioned dog with good bone and great thighs. Rich black, white and tan.
15. Remnant. Full of quality and good in her work.
16. Lictor. A lengthy dog with good ribs and fair bone but shortish neck and shoulders. Very savage when breaking up a fox. Black, tan and white.
17. Venom. Very good in her work.
18. Vaulter. An exceptionally good dog in his work. As stout as steel and always at head. He was very wild in his two first seasons. Black and white.
19. Villager. Very good in his work. Rich dark tan.
20. Belvoir Rallywood 53. A beautiful long low dog. Stood 23in. Grand neck and shoulders; large fore rib. He never ran at head but was always at the finish.
21. Regulus. A compact dog with remarkably powerful thighs. Black, white and tan.
22. Contest. A very good looking hound. Good shoulders, legs and feet, powerful thighs. Stood quite 23in. Black, white and tan. His brother, Craftsman, was a delicate dog and not very good about the loins, but a first-rate finder of a fox.
23. Chacer. Very good in his work. A light coloured hound.
24. Dorimont. A remarkably powerful hound with good shoulders and good length.

NOTES.

1. Acton. A stout hard runner.
2. Actor. A bit on the leg and a little light of bone, but good ribs, neck, and shoulders. A glorious dog in his work. A beautiful tongue, always at head, and generally first when travelling along a road. Black, white and tan.
3. Brutus. Great ribs and good bone. Very stout. Capital in his work. All his stock did well. Black, white and tan.
4. Bachelor. A very hard runner and remarkably good on the road. Black, white and tan.
5. Satellite was a yellow pied hound, descended from the Old Goodwood pack. He was worked at Brocklesby as a fox-hound for some seasons and did so well that they bred from him. Many of their best hounds descend from him.

ADDITIONAL NOTES.

Lord H. Bentinck's Comus 44 ped. 1 —A beautiful little dog.
Hard runner.

Titian 58 ped. 1 —A brilliant and determined dog. Very savage with a fox.

Mr. Foljambe's Albion 40 ped. 1 —A good honest dog.

Mr. Sutton's Rumbler 53 ped. 2 —A very good dog.

Lord H. Bentinck's Comet 49 ped. 7. —A good honest dog.

Victor 61 ped. 9.—A very good dog.

Mr. Foljambe's Driver 40 ped. 20 —An excellent dog. When too old to run at head would come on quietly till they checked and then set them right.

Corsair 54 ped. 27.—A brilliant hound in every way.
